Thanksgiving Festivities

The men of St. Boniface congregation are making extensive preparations for their annual Thanksgiving festival and turkey disposal, to take place November 24 and 25 at St. Boniface Hall. In addition to the turkeys there will be many other desirable offerings and attractions.

The members of St. Columba's church will have a big euchre and lotto on Monday afternoon and evening, November 24, with plenty of turkey to be awarded, a twelve-pound bird being the feature prize.
A five set opal gold ring will be awarded at 10:30 p. m. sharp.

A turkey festival, euchre and lotto will be given at Holy Cross church school hall Tuesday afternoon and evening, November 25, the games to be called at 2:30 and 8:15 o'clock.

A grand euchre, lotto and turkey festival, for the benefit of St. Joseph's church, will be given at Vernon Hall, 1517 Stacy avenue, next Monday and Tuesday. Lotto will be played Monday afternoon, and at night both euchre and lotto. The turkey disposal will take place Tuesday night, beginning at 8 o'clock.
A cordial invitation is extended to the public to enjoy a pleasant evening and see the many handsome prizes.

The Holy Cross Court, Catholic Order of Foresters, will give a lotto next Monday evening in Holy Cross school hall. Thirty-second and Broadway, the games to be called at 8:15 sharp. The Committee of Arrangements announce that the lotto will be given in the school hall and an unusually large number of prizes will be awarded.

Arrangements are being made for a very delightful euchre and lotto entertainment in aid of the Church of Our Lady on Tuesday afternoon and evening, November 25. The affair will be given in the school hall, Thirty-fifth and Rudd, and a most enjoyable time is promised to all attending. A variety of amusements will be provided.

The Holy Rosary will open the evening of November 24 with a programme by the members of the school. No admittance will be charged. Each evening at 8 o'clock the pupils will give a programme consisting of folk dances, songs and drills, exemplifying the work done in the school during the periods devoted to music and physical culture.
In the afternoon of the 25th and 26th the hall will be opened at 3 o'clock and then the various amusements will be offered to the children.

The different booths will be as follows: The mother's apron booth, Holy Rosary Altar, linen booth, St. Catherine's apron booth, High School pupils' Catholic Patch Commercial class candy booth, Children's toy booth. Refreshments will be served in the gymnasium.

SHOWROOM OPENED.
John R. Dailly, who is an expert in his business, has opened a showroom, where he has a wonderful display of colorless gas heaters, gas hot water heaters, gas logs, etc. Mr.
Dailly has built a large business on the efficient work he has been doing. He learned to trade many years ago with the J. Duffy Company, being an expert in plumbing work or anything along that line; also in installing and repairing gasoline and oil pumps, gas stoves and heaters. Any work placed in his hands will be taken care of to the best advantage and will be quoted at the lowest prices.

LEFT THIS WEEK.

The "Casey" St. Ignace Christmas ship, the army transport Marica, left this week from the foot of Fifty-eighth street, Brooklyn, for Vladivostok, Russia. She carried not only millions of cigarettes, flour and grease for doughnuts, candy, woolen mufflers and mittens and other things, but also one doctor, hair clippers so that the sailors may dry their heads and also trim up a few of the Bolsheviks.

TURKEY FESTIVAL.

A turkey festival, euchre and lotto will be given by Holy Cross church, Thirty-second and Broadway, Tuesday afternoon and evening. One hundred turkeys will be awarded the fortunate attendants, and several will be given as euchre and lotto prizes. A five-dollar tally prize will also be a feature of the evening.

An excellent lunch will be served by the ladies of the congregation, and all are assured a good time.

ST. LEO'S CHURCH.

Turkeys will be the feature at a social to be held in St. Leo's school hall, Highland Park, next Tuesday afternoon and evening, and in addition the Committee of Arrangements announce that oysters in any style will be served. Lunch and soft drinks will be served and activities will begin at 2:30 and 8 o'clock. The receipts will be used for payment on the church debt fund.

INTO NEW HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gavin, for many years residing at 530 West Breckinridge street, have moved and are now occupying their new and elegant home at 1333 South Brook-street. Though not so near Kippie Park, Martin will still be a follower and supporter of the Louisville baseball club.

ANNUAL REPORT.

A copy of the report of the proceedings and addresses of the sixteenth annual meeting of the Catholic Educational Association, held in St. Louis has been received by us this week. It contains papers of interest and value on the educational problems of the day. It is an evidence of the real Catholic educators show in their work, and of the great mutual benefit they derive from the meetings of the association. This annual meeting of the Catholic Educational Association of the United States was a splendid testimony of the vitality of the great cause which it represents.

RETREAT A SUCCESS.

The retreat that began Wednesday at St. Vincent de Paul's church for the young men and women of the parish will close tomorrow with impressive ceremony. The large attendance at all the services has been highly pleasing to Rev. Father Bernardine and Rev. Father Thome, the pastor.
